JAPAN ASSURED OF SQUARE DEAL

U. S. Attempts to Persuade Tokio to Enter Parley

LIMITED TO 6 POWERS

Washington Will Not Try, However, to Limit Scope of Discussion—Holland Claims Peace

Washington, July 16.—This Government has undertaken the task of persuading Japan to sit without reservation as a member of the disarmament congress, called by President Harding to meet in Washington, by reassuring Tokio that the cards were not being stacked against her, that there was no intent to take any undue advantage and that she must understand that in coming to the Washington conclave she will find herself in the house of friends.

So far as could be learned this afternoon nothing further had been heard from Tokio through official channels, but it is known that representations have been made to the Japanese Government by the State Department through diplomatic channels and the hope is entertained in Administration circles that these will have a favorable bearing.

This move by the American Government was followed by the official announcement that a definite decision had been reached to limit the sitting members of the conference to the five associated powers—United States, Great Britain, France, Italy and Japan—and to China. Apparently consultations have taken place between this and other Governments and the conclusions reached that it would complicate gravely the whole business to expand the conference into a world congress. It inevitably would bring into consideration a vast number of other issues than those with which at least four of the associated powers wish to debate.

Already there are intimations that international propagandists will be on the job when the conference convenes. If the Irish question is not settled in the meanwhile it is apprehended that the Irish interests will become active; Polish interests, Silesian interests and various others will seek some recognition.

It is to forestall these that prompted the decision to issue no further invitations than those already communicated diplomatically and which will be formally sent as soon as a date for the meeting of the powers can be agreed upon. It is still believed here that Armistice Day will be selected.

Belgium, the Netherlands and all other governments that desired a seat at the conference will have to be content with unofficial observers. Provisions will be made for such observers in order that first-hand reports may be transmitted to any nation interested by its own diplomatic representative.

Although it is specifically provided that the conference is to concern itself only with the limitation of armaments and with the related question of Pacific and Far East settlements, it was indicated in high official quarters today that the agenda for the conference would be a matter for that body to determine for itself. If the conferees desire to bring other issues into consideration they have the privilege of doing so. The United States it was explained, assumes no right to limit the discussion.

These decisions are being communicated to Japan, it is understood in the effort to convince that Government that no Occidental conspiracy is being hatched against it, and that, after all, the conference can only be a success if Japan comes in and accepts unreservedly the conclusions which may be reached. Finally Japan is being made to understand by as delicate a process as possible that if in rejecting one-half of the President's invitation she defeats the purposes of the conference she will be assuming before the world a very grave responsibility.

All phases of the conference were laid before the Cabinet today by President Harding and Secretary of State Hughes, and for some time that body discussed the matter, particularly the reluctance of Japan to enter the conclave if the scope of it is to include all Far Eastern problems.

The Hague, July 16.—"If the proposed conference at Washington is to discuss problems of the Far East it is fair that Holland should participate in the interest of her 59,000,000 subjects in the Dutch Indies, whose territory borders the Pacific.

This is the general opinion in Dutch Government circles, where the plans for the conference are being followed with the keenest interest. Although everybody in Holland realizes the question of disarmament is a matter for the great powers to decide, hopes are expressed that Holland will be invited to send representatives for the discussions on Eastern affairs.

Some of the newspapers, applauding President Harding's step in calling for a disarmament conference, express the wish that Holland be heard and point to her long experience with colonization matters as a reason.

Three Injured In Auto

Overturned at Wythe And Washington Streets Last Night

Three persons received injuries at 9 o'clock last night when an automobile dirven by Joseph Lyles, of Potomac, Arlington county, was over turned at Washington and Wythe strets.

All were treated for bruises and cuts and are rapidly recovering if was stated today at the hospital. They are being treated by Dr. M. D. Delaney.

Mr. Lyles was turning the corner at the time when it is stated the tire blew out causing the accident. Mr. Lyles was but slightly injured.

The others were placed in automobiles and rushed to the Alexandria Hospital. Miss Stonestreet was given first aid treatment at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Schwarzmann nearby.

Attendance Campaign

Only One Change in Sunday School Contest Noted

School	A	PC
Second Baptist	178	130
St. Paul's	165	114
M. E. South	342	107
First Baptist	360	104
Second Presbyterian	120	93
Trinity M. E.	89	92

Only one change is recorded in the standing of the Alexandria Sunday schools in their attendance campaign for the week ending last Sunday. The Second Presbyterian Sunday school moved from last position up to fifth place, thus consigning to last place to the Trinity M. E. School.

The schools are consistently running ahead of the attendance last year as a reference to the records will show. The attendance last year for the same Sunday was 1201, while the figures for last Sunday show an increase of 53, or a total attendance of 1254.

Interest in the Labor Day picnic is beginning to quicken as the contest goes into the second half of the summer. The leaders, the Second Baptist school, had the honor of chosing the "First Lady" of the picnic last year and they confidently expect to have their ruler again seated on the throne of honor the fifth of next September. St. Paul's, the runners up, do not concede this honor and are now looking around for young lady to wear the "crown." We shall see a lively contest before the matter is finally decided.

FRANTIC FALL ON BED FINDS "STOLEN" BABY

Miami, Okla. July 16.—Exhausted and hysterical after a fruitless search for her missing baby daughter, thought to have been taken by a band of gypsies, Mrs. Sam Lankard, of this city, threw herself across her bed and thereby discovered the infant asleep on the floor behind her bed.

RED DEER OFFICERS ARE INSTALLED

Ceremony Held Last Night —Forty Charter Members

TO MEET BI-MONTHLY

Local Lodge First to be Established In Virginia—A. Sidney Mankin Leader.

The new lodge of the Red Deer was formally instituted last night when the officers were installed and the various committees named.

The Alexandria lodge starts off with a charter list of forty, composed of many business and professional men.

A. Sidney Mankin is the first ruler of the lodge, which is the first lodge to be established in Virginia.

The "Red Deer" had its birth last year in Jacksonville, Fla., and claims the honor of being the first strictly social fraternity ever launched south of the Mason Dixon line, and also of being the only fraternity confined to business and professional men only, in the United States. The order has met with a great success in the various parts of the South where branches have been established, owing to these features just mentioned.

The Red Deer has for its slogan, "do good, help the blind, feed the Poor, assist one another in every day life and last but not least, enoy life as it flies," Another feature much appreciated where ever put in operation, is the public charity committee and the movement of the general "Uplift of the Community" which such an organization as this can do so much to bring about. Many members take advantage of this movement and bring into practice, the idea of frequently meeting together and enjoying a weekly or bi-weekly mid day luncheon, when such form of entertainment as may be decided upon can be indulged in.

The officers installed last are as follows:

Ruler, A. Sidney Mankin; past ruler, (W. S. Snow; honorary chaplain, Rev. J. L. Allison; recording secretary J. W. Reeves; treasurer J. W. Wyne; watchman, W. C. Jester; tyler, A. J. Rhodes; lecturer, W. L. Rammel; chaplain, Chas. H. Smith; 2nd lecturer, J. W. May; financial secretary, Nelson T. Snyder; leader, Dr. C. A. Amos; Inner guard, J. Kent White; trustees, Dr. O. A. Ryder. Dr. T. B. Cochran and Jos. Morrow.

Aides F. C. Wyne. and P. A. Wade, Guides, J. H. Newell and M. D. Reese. Paraphernaliaman, J. W. Grady.

Mr. Aikman announced that there would be an illustration of degree work in Washington where a large list of business men is being procured, the end of August and a big ceremonial about the end of September, and that the Alexandria lodge would be expected to assist at both meetings

The local lodge will meet the first and third Friday of each month in future using the old Elks Hall. Royal and Prince Street, until they have arranged for their own lodge and club rooms.

THREE DIE IN PISTOL FIGHT

Lynch. Ky., July 16.—Three men were killed and four seriously wounded here yesterday in a pistol fight.

William Holcomb, Chief of Police; Jim Coldiron, deputy sheriff, and Carl Fulton, mine foreman, were killed when they attempted to arrest three men, whose names are unknown. Four men, whose names are not known, were seriously wounded

The accused parties are being rushed to the Harlan jail, which is being guarded to prevent possible disorders.

OLD ONE PRICE MEALS HAILED BY HOTEL MEN

Chicago, July 16.—A return to the American plan by most hotels was predicted yesterday by members of the American Hotel Association in convention here. That plan provides the guests with a better balanced menu, they said, enables him to know in advance the amount of his bill and to have the meals in the hotel where he lodges.

RECOMMITAL OF BONUS MEASURE

Wlid Scenes and Near Fight In Senate Attend Vote

VOTE 47 to 29

Repeated Rows Punctuate Discussion on Bill—McCumber Invites Reed to Fisticuff.

Washington, July 16.—Followed by unprecedented scenes of disorder the Senate yesterday sent back to the Finance Committee the Soldier Bonus bill and there it will remain until the Administration determines that the condition of the Treasury warrants its resurrection.

The bill was sent back to committee, as urgently recommended by President Harding, by a vote of 47 to 29. Nine Republicans voted against the motion to recommit and eight Democrats supported it.

After the vote Senator McCumber, who had been in charge of the Bonus bill, precipitated a turbulent half hour in the usually dignified upper chamber by attempting to make a speech in explanation of the action of the Senate and to promise that the bill would not be permitted to die. Democrats challenged his right to the floor. There were heated exchanges, points of order, appeals from the decision of the chair and finally an invitation from Senator McCumber to Senator Reed, of Missouri, to "come outside."

At times during the melee, which went on while a thunderstorm spent its fury on the glass roof of the chamber, a half-dozen Senators were on their feet demanding recognition. At intervals the tension was relieved by the frequent repetition by McCumber of "I still have the floor."

In view of the general confusion and the occupancy of the floor by several gesticulating Senators, this always brought a chuckle from floor and galleries. Old-timers about the Senate say that such disorder as existed in the Senate today has not occurred for many years.

The vote of recommittal itself was a cut-and-dried affair. The administration forces had a larger majority, however, than was anticipated. Prior to the final vote, Senator Kenyon sought to recommit the bill with instructions that it be brough back to the Senate not later than January 1 next, with a land settlement amendment included. This was overwhelmingly defeated by both Democrats and Republicans.

On the Penrose motion to send the bill back to committee Senator Weller voted with the Administration. Senators Glass and Swanson, of Virginia, voted to recommit, as did Dial, King, Myers, Simmons, Underwood and Williams, all Democrats, Republicans who voted against the Administration program were Bursum, Cappen, Elkins, Harreld, Jones (Washington, Ladd, La Follette, Norris and Sptherland. As a rule the Democrats voted against recommittal. Senator McCumber was paired, but said he wanted to vote against recommittal.

When Senator McCumber took the floor after the vote he was accused of trying to apologize for the Administration action and Senator Robinson, of Arkansas, insisted that debate was closed, that Mr. McCumber could not hold the floor for a "funeral oration" over the bill. Senator McCumber exclaimed that he would yield to nobody and Senator Robinson tried to force him to yield by rising to a point of order. Senator Lodge insisted Mr. McCumber might talk since no one had objected when he first arose and unanimous consent impliedly had been given. Vice-president Coolidge was beset by cries of "order."

Senator Norris, Nebraska; Reed, Missouri; Watson, Georgia; Harrison, Mississippi; Standly, Kentucky, and Brandegee, Connecticut, became involved in the free-for-all wrangle.

At the height of the fracas, while a part of the Senate was amused, another part angered and the rest evidently mortified Senator Watson, of Georgia, advanced toward the Republican side, shook his fists and yelled that it was outrageous that anyone who had so betrayed the soldiers who

Little Boy Lost

Lad Obtains Tickets for "All Aboard" at Lyceum Next Wednesday and Thursday

A lady at the market this morning was telling another lady how much she enjoyed the last show of the Columbian Players and how anxiously she was awaiting the time next week when it will be possible to see the latest Columbian production, entitled "All Aboard." The other lady, too was of the same frame of mind, and stated that she had already bought her ticket and "wouldn't miss the show for a thousand dollars.' In the course of the interesting conversation, little Willie, son of one of the ladies disappeared, and it was an hour afterward before he was found by a policeman reading one of the posters in front of the Lyceum Hall. When the little boy was taken to the station house he told the officer in charge that he had heard his mother talk so much about "All Aboard" that he wanted to see the Lyceum and see if he could get a free ticket for one of the pals. The committee has since gotten in touch with little Willie and personally presented Willie with ten seats for "All Aboard."

Next Wednesday and Thursday are the nights, and "All Aboard" will prove to be one of the most attractive and really refreshing productions of the season. Everybody invited!

RAINBOW DIVISION VETERANS CONDEMN COL. GEORGE HARVEY'S LONDON SPEECH

Cleveland, O., July, 16.—Resenting a statement made in London by Colonel George Harvey, ambassador to England, that the war was fought by the United States from motives of self-interest, delegates to the second annual convention of the Rainbow Division Veterans' Association today condemned Colonel Harvey. They also condemned the eighteenth amendment to the United States Constitution.

A resolution endorsing the stand of the South Carolina chapter, which recommended that Colonel Harvey, "representing, we trust temporarily, the United States at the Court of St. James, be deprived of his title of lieutenant-colonel, conferred on him in a burst of generosity, due to the hospitality of the State, and be given a dishonorable discharge from the post-haste" was adopted.

Another resolution declaring that the eighteenth (dry) amendment was adopted while 4,000,000 men were either in France or deprived of a vote because they were in camps at home, and advocating that no change in the Constitution on any subject be made when men are at war, was unanimously passed.

Instructions For Women Voters

Richmond, March 3, 1921.
Hon. J. F. Wysor,
County Treasurer
Pulaski, Va.

Dear Sir:

Acknowledgment is made of your letter of February 22, 1921, in which you say:

"As I understand the law the first tax to be assessed against the women is for the year 1921. The qualification for voters in the Democratic primary to be held in the summer and for the general election in the fall, is the payment of the 1920 capitation tax by the 1st of May. Therefore, such women as desire to vote in the primary or general election can do so by the payment of the tax any time up to thirty days before the general election.

"I wish you would write me if I am correct in this interpretation of the law."

Since the taking effect of the 19th Amendment to the Federal Constitution, the women of Virginia enjoy the same election privileges as those enjoyed by the men of this State.

It is provided by Section 21 of the Virginia Constitution as follows:

"Any person registered under either of the last two sections, shall have the right to vote for members of the General Assembly and all officers elective by the people, subject to the following conditions:

"That he, unless exempted by section Twenty-two shall as a prerequisite to the right to vote after the first day of January, nineteen hundred and four, personally pay, at least six months prior to the election, all State poll taxes assessed or assessable against him, under this Constitution, during the three years next preceding that in which he offers to vote; provided that, if he register after the first day of January nineteen hundred and four, he shall, unless physically unable, prepare and deposit his ballot without aid, on such printed form as the law may prescribe, but any voter registered prior to that date may be aided in the preparation of his ballot by such officer of election as he himself may designate."

Under this section of the Constitution, any man or woman in this State, unless exempted by Section 22 of the Constitution, is required as a prerequisite to the right to vote after the 1st day of January, 1904 to personally pay, at least six months prior to the election, all State poll taxes assessed or assessable against him or her under the Constitution or the law of this State during the three years next preceding that in which he or she offers to vote.

March 3 1921

Hon. J. F. Wysor.

A provision similar to that in the Constitution is found in the second paragraph of Section 3 of Chapter 400 of the Acts of 1920 which so far as applicable to the question here under consideration, is as follows:

"That she shall, as a prerequisite

Two Charges Disposed of Against Nelson Osborn, Colored—White Man Gets 90 Days For Being Drunk

"I slap her now and then," said Osorn Nelson, colored, arested by Sergt. Campebll and Policeman Welker, when arraigned to answer a charge of beating his wife and also trespassing. The daughter-in-law was the principal complainant against the accused. There was also a charge of trespass preferred against the accused. All of the charges lodged against him were settled for $5.

While the court was in progress Policeman Lawrence Padgett brought in a non resident giving the name of Frank Connally.

IRISH SITUATION SHAPING BETTER

British Premier Talks to De Valera and Later To Craig

NO FEAR MANIFESTED

Strong Hope Held Out That Conference of all Three Will Evolve—Sinn Fein Statement

London, July 16.—Two more important conferences were held today in the effort by the Prime Minister, Mr. Lloyd George, and the leaders of Southern and Northern Ireland to lay the foundation of a meeting of the leaders of the two countries to endeavor to reach a solution of the Irish problem.

The first conference was between Mr. Lloyd George and Eamon de Valera, the Irish Republican leader, and the second between Mr. Lloyd George and Sir James Craig, Premier of Ulster. No official information as to the results attained by the conferences was issued, but it may be said that the preliminary negotiations are shaping better than anyone could have dared to hope a week ago. No hitch thus far has occurred.

Mr. De Valera will meet Mr. Lloyd George again on Monday, while Sir James has summoned three members of the Ulster Cabinet—H. N. Pollock, Minister of Finance; E. A. Archdale, Minister of Agriculture, and U. M. Andrews, Minister of Labor—to London, which would appear to indicate that some suggestion worthy of consideration by the Ulster Government has come to light.

Finally, it is said by those in close touch with the negotiations that there is every prospect that the proposed conference of Mr. Lloyd George, Mr. De Valera and Sir James will materialize early next week.

The two days' interim in the Irish peace preliminaries, which will terminate Monday when the Prime Minister and Mr. de Valera meet for the third time, promises to be a critical period in the negotiations, but in the councils of neither of the three parties concerned is there manifestation of fear that the difficulties of the situation will not be bridged.

From the sequence of developments, those who have closely followed the meetings inferred that the storm cen-

Highway to The Valley.

The recent letter of our Chamber of Commerce to the candidates for the State Legislature in regard to their views on the highway from this city to the Valley of Virginia, is both timely and pertinent. Owing to the persistent hammering for several years past by our Chamber, the highway is now a part of the State Highway program as fixed by the General Assembly.

It is needless, here, to point out its advantages to Alexandria. The fertile farming section that it will bring to our doors will not only enable us to procure all the fresh vegetables and fruits requisite for public health, but all the other products of a rich agricultural country that are so welcome and indispensable to the dweller in the city. Besides, the farmer will find here all the merchandise for his farm and household. This will become his trading point and supply depot, and stimulate the growth of our commerce to an almost inconceivable extent. There will likewise be an interchange of travel between the city and the valley that will conduce to much closer relations and a profitable intercourse. With motor trucks plying between Alexandria and the counties of Fairfax, Loudoun, Fauquier and Clark, and the Valley, and a constant stream of automobiles, trade would take on a significance surpassing even the brisk and stirring times of the War.

We note with particular interest, the straightforward and unequivocal reply of our fellow-townsman, Charles Henry Smith. It has the genuine ring of sincerity, and we may evidently rely upon him, if elected, to look out first and foremost for the interests of Alexandria. There must be an emphatic and immistakable mandate from this city to the legislature that it cannot for an instant tolerate any change in Route No. 6 that will cut off Alexandria and its envirous from direct connection with the Valley. But we must first elect a man who is not only thoroughly imbued with our ideas but who is of sufficient force to impress them upon his fellow legislators.

How Women May Vote.

The Gazette has just obtained from Richmond a set of instructions for the qualification of women voters. We print same elsewhere in today's paper, and urge our women readeres to preserve the copy for future guidance.

to the right to vote after this act becomes effective, personally pay at least six months prior to the election, all State poll taxes assessed or assessable against her under this act during the three years next preceding that in which she offers to vote.

You will note that the only taxes which a person is required to pay as a prerequisite to voting are the taxes assessed or assessable against the person during the three years next preceding that in which he or she offers to vote.

So fas as the women of Virginia are concerned, there was no State poll tax assessed or assessable against them for any year prior to 1921, the first tax assessable against them being for the year 1921, There fore as a prerequisite to the right to vote in any election during the year 1921, the women of Virginia are not required to pay the poll tax assessable against them for the year 1921 six months prior to the election in which they offer to vote. All that they are required to do is pay the capitation tax for the year 1921 prior to the closing of the registration books. If otherwise qualified, they are then entitled to vote.

Very truly yours,
(Signed) JNO. R. SAUNDERS,
Attorney General.

Richmond, June 9, 1921.
Commissioners of Revenue
County and City Treasurers:

The Attorney General is of the opinion that a woman, who has not been assessed with State capitation tax for 1921, can, upon payment of that tax or or before August 2, 1921, register and vote if otherwise qualified as a democrat, in the democratic primary to be held on August 2, 1921; also that a woman who has not been assessed with the State capitation tax for 1921 can, upon the payment of that tax at any time prior to thirty days before the general election is held, register and vote in the general election to be held in November 1921.

In view of this opinion of the Attorney General, in which I concur, I beg to advise and instruct you as follows:

If a woman apply to the commissioner of revenue to be assessed by certificate the commissioner of revenue should issue her the proper certificate and upon presentation of that certificate to the county or city treasurer she should receive the tax; but if the woman has already been assessed with the State capitation tax of $1.50, on the personal property book for 1921, the commissioner should give her a statement in writing to that effect and she should present that statement to the county or city treasurer who should receive the tax and give her a receipt; so that she may register and be qualified to vote in either the democratic primary to be held on August 2nd, or at the general election to be held in November, 1921.

It has been brought to my attention through the Virginia League of Women Voters that there is a misunderstanding throughout the State amongst the women and the commissioners of revenue and county and city treasurers as to the time within which women must be assessed with and pay the State capitation tax of $1.50 for 1921, and register to enable them to vote in both the democratic primary and general election, and this circular is issued to make clear the law and procedure in the matter.

Yours very truly,
C. LEE MOORE,
Auditor Public Accounts.

ALEXANDRIA IN DANGER!

APPROACH OF THE ENEMY.

The citizens of this place were yesterday under arms, in consequence of Brig. Gen. Young having received news by express from Capt. Morris of the U. S. Frigate Adams, stationed below, that the enemy's squadron had entered the Potomac and were proceeding up. At 9 o'clock the militia paraded at the market square with great punctuality, and after hearing the orders of the Secretary of War to the General, were dismissed till 5 o'clock. The Uniform companies have encamped at the lower end of the town. It was with pleasure we witnessed that everything was conducted in such a manner as not to excite unnecessary alarm— an unfinterested spectator would have supposed that nothing was apprehended, but that it was ordinary parade day. The Secretary of War has proceeded, we learn, with about 1200 men, regulars and militia, to Fort Washington, to dispute the passage of that place with the enemy ,and we have no doubt will give a good account of him should he have the temerity to make a trial of skill with the troops under his command.

The latest accounts left the enemy squadron about —70 MILES BELOW ALEXANDRIA. Let them come here when they may, they will meet with a reception not very courteous.

CAPITAL ALARMED

Congress met yesterday at the usual hour, but adjourned very soon after, we presume without transacting any business. This early adjournment was produced, it is probable, by the ALARM OCCASIONED IN WASHINGTON, by the news of a probable visit from the BRITISH SQUADRON.

Are You Afraid of Lightning?
Have you worried, during the past few days, over what would become of your valuable real estate, should it be struck by lightning? Have you given a thought to the protection of your home and your loved ones in case the storm's wrath was visited upon you?
While the skies are fair and there is no hint of a storm in the air is the time to be thinking seriously of your future protection.
Newspapers are full of stories of the destruction of houses and buildings that have been struck by lightning and the next may be your turn to suffer from the ravages of a bolt or from a tornado.
We can write you an insurance policy that completely covers all forms of liability and can include such items as the theft, burning or liability of your automobile. The latter clause—liability—covers all forms of accidents and protects you in any event.
Don't wait until an emergency arises that you cannot control. Come into the office today and put yourself in a happy frame of mind by insuring your possessions with a company that assumes every chance and that is reliable and prompt in the settlement of all claims against it.

GHOSTS QUIT WHEN HOUSE OWNER CHARGES ADMISSION

Winchester, Va., July 16.—The house of mystery at Bristol, where ghosts were said recently to have stalked in defiance of the police, has fallen out of the limelight, according to traveling men who cover that territory.

CAPITAL DARK, TRAFFIC HALTED WHILE STORM VENTS ITS FURY

Washington, July 16.—A thunderstorm of great intensity came upon the national capital yesterday afternoon, caused the death of one person by lightning, halted street car traffic and put electric lights out of commission in certain of the down town sections for an hour or more and resulted in small property damage because of wind and fallen trees.

At the Capitol the debates in the Senate and House were almost stopped by the downpour on the stained glass roofs and speakers had to shout to be heard.

The White House was shaken during the storm. The hardest crash came about 8:40 o'clock, and John D. Hanze, White House policeman, on duty at the west front gate, was hurled from his sentry box. While badly shaken and bruised, Hanze, after resting in the Executive offices for a short time, went to his home.

Reports to the police early last night indicated but one fatality. An unidentified negro was killed by lightning while taking refuge under a tree at Seventh and K streets north west. Trees were blown down here and there in the city, the police said, but the property damage was slight. Street car traffic and light service was resumed late yesterday afternoon, after repairs of blown out fuses and overcharged wires.

YOUNG GIRL FINDS RELIEF

Wants to Tell Other Girls All About It

Evansville, Ind.—"I am eighteen years old and have been bothered for several months with irregular periods. Every month my back would ache and I always had a cold and felt drowsy and sleepy. I work in a millinery shop and I went to work every day, but felt stupid and would have such cramps. I had seen Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound advertised and had heard several women talk of it, so mother got me some. This Vegetable Compound is wonderful and it helped me very much, so that during my periods I am not now sick or drowsy. I have told many girls about your medicine and would be glad to help anyone who is troubled with similar ailments. You may use my testimonial as you like."—STELLA LINXWILER, 6 Second St., Evansville, Indiana.

Some girls lead lives of luxury, while others toil for their livelihood, but all are subject to the same physical laws and suffer in proportion to their violation. When such symptoms develop as irregularities, headaches, backaches, bearing-down sensations and "the blues," girls should profit by Miss Linxwiler's experience and give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial

VIRGINIA NEWS

Winchester—Bootleggers in Shenandoah Valley are reported to have formed an agreement with those east of the Blue Ridge to appeal all cases decided against them by county magistrates, in whose courts, it is said, the fees, and cost usually are greatly in excess of the fines. It is the intention of the blockade runners to carry their cases to the Circuit Court and have trial by jury. They say the magistrates and constables are imposing upon their good nature in assessing exhorbitant fines, cots and fees. The bootleggers say they are engaged in an industry which is supplying a "long felt want," and that they should not be so treated in the lower courts.

Norfolk.—Steps toward the formation of a federation of Republican women's clubs in Virginia today were taken when Mrs. Harriet Taylor Upton, of Ohio, vice chairman of the Republican national committee, and leader of Republican women of this country, and Miss Edna Annette Beveridge, special representative of the Republican national committee, met the Republican women of Norfolk.

Charlottesville—Historic "Birdwood", just west of the University of Virginia and one of the most desirable farms anywhere in Piedmont, Va., has been sold to Hollis Rinehart to Henry L. Fonda, of Pennsylvania,. The price realized is said to have been between $150,000 and $200,000.

Richmond—For the first time in the history of Richond, women served as honorary pallbearers at the funeral Friday of Mrs. Lila Meade Valentine, organizer and first president of the Equal Suffrage League of Virginia.

ter had shifted to the Ulstermen's camp. It is intimated in a well-informed quarter that Sir James now is face to face with the definite alternatives arrived at in the Lloyd George De Valera interchanges of yesterday and today. The same informant expressed belief that these are not regarded as utterly impossible by Sir James, but that they involve concessions which the Ulster leader is unwilling to pledge on his own responsibility.

At the headquarters of Mr. de Valera there was perceptible a lessening of the tension tonight. Here a statement was given to the Associated Press by one in a position to get an authoritative view of the situation as seen by the Irish delegate. It reads:

"The present discussions are designed to find, if possible, suitable ground for holding a useful conference—one that might legitimately be termed a peace conference.

"So far as the Dail Eireann's representatives are concerned, what Sir James Craig says to Premier Lloyd George is of no moment. Mr. De Valera invited representatives of the Irish minorities to confer with him in Dublin. Sir James failed to appear, although he previously had talked with the President. The Southern Unionists did appear and expressed their views.

"Mr. de Valera considers the party of Sir James Craig thus was represented, because the Southern Nationalists consider the Southern and Northern Unionists of the same clan and the same policy.

"By his failure to appear, Mr. de Valera considers Sir James forfeited whatever right he might have claimed to being an element in the situation as between England and Ireland; in other words, it is with Mr. de Valera he ultimately will have to deal. Only in Irish internal politics does Sir James, in Mr. de Valera's mind, continue to be a factor."

WHEN EVERY MOVE HURTS

Lame every morning, achy and stiff all day, worse when it's damp or chilly? Suspect your kidneys and try the remedy your neighbors use. Ask your neighbor!

Mrs. A. M. Madison, 328 North Royal St., Alexandria, says: "I was so bad off with kidney complaint I had to go to bed. My back hurt me as though I were being pierced with a knife. I couldn't turn from one side to the other, but was just helpless. When I was able to get up around at all I had to have help to do everything. I couldn't even lace my own shoes, and I was so nervous my hand would shake like a leaf when I tried to hold anything. The way my kidneys acted showed they were in bad shape. I got Doan's Kidney Pills at Creighton's Drug Store and I was certainly filled with joy before I had used them very long. The misery left me and I felt like myself again."

Editor, Alexandria Gazette:

Alexandria, Virginia.

Dear Sir:

As a native of Alexandria, an old subscriber to the Gazette and an alumnus of the University of Virginia, I am writing this letter in the hope that you may see your way clear to use the influence of your paper to try to prevent the removal of the Medical School from the University of Virginia to Richmond.

It is true that a special committee, authorized by the legislature and appointed by the Governor, some two years ago, has recommended the removal by a five to four vote. This bare majority vote, however is directly contrary to the weight of expert testimony laid before the committee. Dr. Wm. H. Welch, of Johns Hopkins, Baltimore, Dr. Abraham Flexner of the Rockefeller Foundation, New York, Dr. Henry S. Pritchett, of the Carnegie Foundation, Dr. David S. Edsall, Dean of the Medical Department, Harvard University, Dr. Chas. R. Bardeen, Dean of the Medical Dept. University of Wisconsin, Pres. H. P. Judson, University of Chicago, Pres. R. L. Wilbur of Leland Stanford University, California, Dr. Wm. Pepper, Dean of the Medical Dept. University of Pennsylvania, are simply a few of those of national and international reputation who have advised strongly against removing the Medical School from the University to Richmond. Certainly, the testimony of these men, none of whom have any connection with the University of Virginia or the State of Virginia, can be considered entirely unbiased on one hand and of the highest expert value on the other, since their whole time and attention has been given to improving medical science and seeking ways and means to improve the medical schools and medical schools and medical instruction of the country.

The University of Michigan, University of Wisconsin, University of California, all have their medical schools at the seat of the University, which are small towns, rather than in the large cities of the respective states, such as Detroit, Milwaukee, San Francisco, though in no case are these cities as far from the small town seats of the University as is Richmond from Charlottesville. In fact, the theory held some fifteen or twenty years ago, that medical instruction could only be satisfactorily given in large cities having large hospital facilities is completely exploded. It is generally admitted by the men most experienced in such things, that a comparatively small hospital, such as that at the University of Virginia, entirely under control of the University and its teaching staff is of more value than many large hospitals not under such control, and that the medical student has better surroundings for his medical education at the University seat, surrounded by students in other lines and the University and small town atmosphere than when separated from his University and located in a large city.

I have been told, during the past fifteen years, by different members of the Harvard Medical Faculty and some of the leading surgeons in Boston, that when noted foreign physicians and surgeons come to visit this country the only places that they care to see or hear about are the clinics of the Mayo brothers, at Rochester, Minnesota, and at Johns Hopkins, in Baltimore. In other words such large cities and centers as Boston, New York, Chicago and Philadelphia, contain nothing new or of interest to these men. This is positive proof that the size of the city and clinic have little to do with the value of the clinic for educational purposes. The greatest clinic in this country, if not in the world, is that of the Mayo brothers, at Rochester, Minnesota, a town of insignificant size. This in itself knocks out the sole reason and argument for moving the University Medical School to Richmond.

If Richmond desires a first class medical school well and good, let her seek to build one up, but why, in order to tickle the vanity and gratify the pride of the city of Richmond, tear up by the roots of a medical school of standing and reputation and growth of nearly a hundred years and try to transplant its traditions and prestige to Richmond. It is a foregone conclusion that this cannot successfully be done and that the Medical School of the University of Virginia will suffer in prestige and value. As good or better arguments could be used for transferring the law school, the engineering school and other schools from the University to Richmond and thus reduce what is now one of the leading Universities of the Country to an insignificant college.

Some of the greatest private and state universities in this country and in the world are and always have been located in comparatively small towns and it is recognized by the alumni of Columbia University and the University of Pennsylvania that both of them suffer from being located in large cities.

I cannot help feeling that back of this whole attempt to move the Medical School is a little ill-judged and antiquated reasoning and a good deal of improper city pride and politics.

I trust that this letter is not too long for you to read and to consider carefully, as well as publish in your valuable paper.

Yours truly,
(Signed) Edmund J. Burke.

P. S. The University is now, as it should be, located at the geographical center of the State, at the junction of the two main railroad lines traversing the State, north and south, east and west.

(Signed) Edmund J. Burke.

The fire was later reported under control. The tank struck was of fifteen thousand barrels capacity. The flames and smoke rolled in great clouds and could be seen for miles.

MOTHERS MAY WEIGH BABIES DAILY ON PARCEL POST WAGON SCALES

Minneapolis, July 16.—Efforts to "humanize" the postal service, as announced in a recent order of Postmaster General Hayes, was given some development here today, when Postmaster E. A. Purdy ordered that all drivers of parcel post wagons permit mothers to weigh their babies daily, providing the babies are brought to the parcel post wagon scales.

fought on the fields of France should attempt to explain the despicable action of the Administration.

"I still have the floor," said the impetuous McCumber, who had not yet become angered with Senator Reed.

"Yes, and that's all you have got," said Watson.

Vice-President Coolidge ruled that Mr. McCumber might proceed, but he did so with extreme difficulty. He gave assurance that the Bonus bill would be brought back just as soon as tariff and taxation were out of the way and then foreign loans had been funded.

Senator Reed said Secretary Mellon estimated is would take at least five years to fund the Allied loans. Senator McCumber said the Secretary had made no such statement.

"I notice," said Senator Reed, "that there is a disposition here when I make a statement of fact for some one to get up and say that it is not true. That may happen once too often."

"So far as I am concerned," retorted the now irate McCumber, "the Senator is entitled to know the character of the man he is dealing with. I cannot happen once too often for me."

"The Senator is privileged to parade his physical powers here in the Senate," said Senator Reed to Senator McCumber.

"Whenever the Senator challenges me I shall meet him outside, be sure of that," said McCumber.

A few minutes after this angry interchange the row broke out again between them, Senator Reed observing that the "blackguard can always invite somebody outside." Finally both Reed and McCumber expressed regret that they had transgressed the dignity of the Senate and agreed to go over their remarks and see if they should stay in the Record.
